NOTIFICATION

(Online Classes, Workshop on NEP & Preponement of Summer Vacation)

This is to inform all students, faculty members, and non-teaching staff that the premises of Alipurduar University at present is under the control of the Election Commission of India (ECI) for the purpose of conducting the West Bengal Legislative Assembly (WBLA) Election, 2026.

Due to this administrative exigency, the University will remain inaccessible for academic activities in offline mode.

To ensure that the academic calendar is not disrupted, the following arrangements have been made:

1. All teaching-learning activities (classes) will shift entirely from the physical classroom to digital platforms.
2. All faculty members are requested to take the necessary action to organize their respective classes online and ensure that meeting links are shared with students in a timely manner to avoid any loss of credit hours.
3. Students are expected to attend these online sessions as per their existing class routines. They are advised to follow any specific instructions provided by their respective Heads of Departments (HODs) or teaching faculty member.
4. All faculty members are further requested to attend a Workshop on National Education Policy (NEP), 2020, which will be held in offline mode on 6th and 7th April 2026. Detailed information regarding the venue and schedule will be shared shortly.
5. Only for vacation staff (teaching faculty) the Summer Vacation, originally scheduled from 27th April to 22nd May 2026, has been preponed from 20th April 2026 to 15th May 2026. Therefore, all teaching faculty members are hereby requested to complete all pending assignments prior to the commencement of the vacation on 20th April 2026. This is to ensure that student evaluations are processed without delay.
6. Essential administrative functions will continue and specific instructions will be issued by the competent authority, as and when required.

All stakeholders are requested to cooperate.
