

Academic Collaborations:

The Alipurduar College has been upgraded into Alipurduar University by the Act of 2018, Govt. of West Bengal. During this transition period we have received different academic collaborative proposals from different colleges and Institutions. The MoU to promote academic linkages between Alipurduar University (erstwhile Alipurduar College) & Asutosh College has already been signed on 09.06.2023. The objective of this MoU is to facilitate their development of collaborative and mutual programmes that will enhance the intellectual life of both institutions, contribute to increased cooperation and promote mutual understanding has been signed on 09.06.2023. Other collaborative proposals with Alipurduar University are under process.
